

WANTED

Mountain bikers

to race in the Mexican Sierras where the legendary Francisco (Pancho) Villa and his band of revolutionaries roamed 100 years ago, eluding the U.S. Army. Pancho Villa was feared by many, and for a time ruled the city of Chihuahua like a medieval warlord. In the spirit of Pancho's wild adventures, insane mountain bikers will raise hell and a lot of dirt in Mexico's rugged Sierra Madre Mountains in Copper Canyon.

Villa's Vendetta

SATURDAY, April 24 • CROSS COUNTRY

(approximately 50 miles)

Start from Cusarare, at the Copper Canyon Sierra Lodge. Find your way through a maze of mountains and canyons, on primitive two- and single-track trails.

SUNDAY, April 25 • TIME TRIAL

(approximately 40 miles...straight up!)

Start out in the old silver mining village of Batopilas, in the canyon floor, pound up mountain switchbacks, climb nearly 6,000 feet and finish where the real road begins.

REWARD
Hard Cash,
Moonshine, Cerveza
& Live Chickens

Entry Fee: $5.00 for each race
